BCSEM

9:30 a.m., September 15, 2016

at the new

Brownstown Events Center

23345 King Road, between Dix-Toledo and Telegraph

Brownstown, MI 48183

Hosted by the Brownstown Beautification and Historical Commission, the program will begin with registration and a continental breakfast at 9:30 a.m., followed at 10 a.m. by speakers Brownstown Supervisor Andy Linko; author, newspaper columnist and 2013 advanced Master Gardener of the Year, Paul Rodman; and keynote speaker, Dr. John Hartig, book author, Refuge Manager for the Detroit International Wildlife Refuge, past River Navigator for the Greater Detroit American Heritage River Initiative, adjunct professor of Environmental Management and Sustainable Development at Wayne State University, with many additional accomplishments—and awards—to his credit.

A catered luncheon will be served at noon, followed by the BCSEM meeting, awarding of the Individual Service Award, networking, presenting of the travel trophy, and prizes to be awarded by the host community.

DIRECTIONS: From the north, via I-75. Go south to just past the Sibley Rd. exit (Exit 34-B) to Dix-Toledo. Stay about 1 mile on Dix-Toledo, just past Gudith, to King Road (light). Turn right on King. There's a church on the corner, then the police station, then the entrance to the new Brownstown Activities Center. If you get to Telegraph, you've gone a little too far.

Via I-94 or Telegraph: Take I 94 to the Telegraph south exit (or take Telegraph south), past Eureka, past Sibley to the next light, which is King. Turn left on King if you're coming from the north, or right if you're south going north. Events Center is just past the recreation complex.

Via I-275 – Take I-275 south past I-94, past Eureka to the next exit, Sibley Road. Turn left on Sibley and go about 6 miles to Telegraph Rd. Turn right (south) to the first light (King Rd.) Turn left (Thorn Park on corner). New Events Center is a little past the recreation complex. If you need additional directions, call the Brownstown Recreation Center at 734-675-0920.
