Our program continues at 10 a.m. with welcoming comments from your two host communities. Next we ask that you share your successes and failures from 2016, so come prepared. Erik Tungate, Oak Park City Manager, will begin by telling us about the successful 2016 Oak Park community sunflower project.

After lunch, provided by Dorsey Schools, please join us for our keynote speaker, Abby Lane from the Clinton River Watershed Council. Abby will defy winter and remind us that spring is close at hand as she shares: Do It Yourself Landscaping and Lawn care for Water Quality: What we do on the land affects our water quality. Learn simple tips and tricks to help protect water quality in your garden and on your lawn to protect our precious fresh waters.

Please confirm your reservation by Thursday, November 30, 2016
